Jews being attacked in the streets, threatened on college campuses—targeted simply for being Jewish. It is happening today in the United States and abroad. Read the Museum's statement on the surge in dangerous antisemitism.

We know antisemitism didn't start or end with the Holocaust, but this history teaches us where it can lead if left unchecked. The Museum's educational resources can help address this dangerous trend. Help us expand our reach by sharing the stories and resources below. What you do matters.
